- Tenderer should sign bid tracker sheet which will indicate the date bids taking over/ issued and date bids submitted.

3. Technical Evaluation (Essential criteria)

The Evaluation Committee will rule on the technical admissibility of each Bid, classifying it as technically compliant or non-compliant. The technical evaluation will be based on the information and documents annexed in the Bid concerning the items and specifications for 'goods', and both the task to be carried out under the ITB, and the professional ability of the Bidder for 'services'.

- Capacity to deliver the items and materials to the schools.
- Food Warehouse and business premises where the committees will be verifying?
- Asset both physical and capital(Bank statement for last 12 months)
- The country of origin of the items bided for must be clearly stated. As far as possible Bids should be for the full RI quantity required.

4. Evaluation Award criteria (preferred criteria)

- Technical Aspect: compliance with the scope of work described in the Bid packages and the invitation to tender, Experiences with minimum 3 food stuff contracts from INGOs.
- Legal Aspect: compliance documents including a valid Certificate of Business form Ministry of Commerce, Puntland National Tender Board registration (PNTB), Local Government Registration, Updated Tax clearance certificate from the minister of finance
- Financial Aspect: The Evaluation Committee will not necessarily choose on the basis of lowest price alone but will award a contract on the basis of criteria such as best value for money, price, quality, and compliance with international norms.

5. Submission of Samples

If the Tender calls for the submission of samples then failure to do so may render your Bid invalid... Sample packaging must be clearly marked 'Samples' with the ITB number and the Bidder's name etc. All samples submitted remain the property of RI. Samples must be received at the same place as the 'hard copies' of the Bid
